Strong statements would be hazardous for us to make. unless based upon bedrock facts. In the matter of Wraps we often use strong language-superlative assertions. Lately, to be sure of our ground, we have been making a comparative analysis of others' stocks in comparison with our own. Result: A double assurance that an equal collection does not exist in

In Ladies' and Children's Wraps there is an immense advantage to the consumer in picking from this matchless variety, manufactured by only the first makers in the country to our order and exchanged for us.

Such conditions are here, coupled with prices that are even more convincing.

Here are a few hints as to the special values shown in our new Wrap Department on second floor (take elevator).

NASHVILLE, TENN., October 16 .-Special.)-A few minutes before 7 o'clocks lo-night 212 lusty youths in gray uniforms and in the best of spirits, though fatigued from a long journey, entered the Union Depot, and immediately showed their presence by giving the yell of the Virginia Military Institute. First it was given by the entire battalion, and then by companies, and again by squads of individuals. The blasts of bugles were thrown in like exclamation points to emphasize the proposition that the boys were glad to be in the Centennial City.

At the depot to meet the boys, their officers, and friends, were Colonel W. C. Smith, of the First Tennessee Regiment, and a member of the Exposition Military Company. While an engine was eing hooked to their train to take then to the Centennial-Grounds, Colonel Smith hunted up General Shipp and Colonel Price and gave them a hearty welcome, At 7 o'clock the station was reached a the Exposition-Grounds, and the order was given to carry arms, and leave the train. The battalions formed on the platform, and, headed by the institute band, and piloted by Colonel Smith, marched from the entrance to the enprighter, the time being immediately pre-

THE RANDOLPH-MACON LADS GIVE

CAPTAIN DALLEY BADLY HURT.

In a Down He Sustains a Dislocation of His Hip-The 'Varsity and Hampton Game Here Next Saturday-Norfolk Boys Tuesday.

Notwithstanding that the sun shone lown upon the gridiron with a fervency that would have done credit to July weather, the foot-ball players from Richmond and Randelph-Macon colleges donned their heavily-padded suits yesterday at ternoon and played a close and highlyinteresting game at Broad-Street Park.

Richmond College won the game, to the delight of the two hundred and more cranks who were present, but those who bet that Randolph-Macon would not score, and they were not a few either, lost their money. The Ashland boys were in good condition, and they played like old hands at the business, giving the local eleven a tussle throughout.

A BAD ACCIDENT.

They were handlcapped in the last hair have had something to do with their defeat. The captain's name is D. H. Dalley and up to the commencement of the last half he had done some excellent work in the position of left half-back. In one of the first downs, though, after this half had started, he got caught beneath the "bunch" and his left hip was dislocated. Suffering intensely, he was picked up and carried to the club-house, where Dr. Mervin Branch examined his injuries. An ttempt was made to set the dislocated oint, but the powerful muscles would ot relax, and it became necessary to telephone for the ambulance and to administer chloroform in order to get the cones back in place. Mr. Dalley was then taken to Elba Station and sent back to The game was not interrupted by the accident. Janney, a substitute, jumped in to take Dalley's place, but thereafter the visitors did not play with that snap that they formerly displayed, THE LINE-UP.

Start and kept it continuous, its skick-off until about ten minutes after play began they made a touch-down. They failed, however, to kick goal, and, therefore, scored only four points.

Richmond College than took the ball and forced it toward their goal; a field kick was attempted by them, but they was called for the first half.

In the second half the ball went to Richmond, and the lads manfully carried it forward. When on their 20-yard line, Frazer, the left tackle, secured the pigskin, and, rushing through Randolph-Macon's centre, cleared the crowd, and made a touch-down, McNeill then kicked the goal, and this gave the locals a score of 6 as against their opponents' 4 The Richmond lads tried to make an other goal, and they would have done so, no doubt had not time been called. They had the ball on their 2-yard line when the game concluded.

VARSITY ELEVEN AND HAMPTON Great Game to Be Played Here Next Saturday Afternoon.

There will be two games of foot-ball played here this week, and both games promise to be exciting and interesting On Tuesday afternoon the Richmond Athletics and the Norfolk Athletics, two strong amateur elevens, will contest for honors, and on Saturday the University of Virginia team will meet the Hampton

This latter game will no doubt prove a great attraction, as during last season the 'Varsities and the Hamptonians played two games together, and in neither contest could either team win a victory. They decided to try conclusions here Saturday, and both elevens, as well as their respective friends, are claiming their superiority. WORK WITH REDOUBLED ENERGY Since their return from Philadelphia where they suffered a worse defeat than was expected at the hands of Pennsy, Varsity has gone to work with redoubled energy. Captain Morrison and Coach Ber gen both feel the necessity of a greadeal of hard work before the team can be rounded into the form it will require to defeat Georgia, North Carolina, and Collier, who has been playing guard, is now being worked at tackle. Davis, last year's guard, who has been playing tackle this year, will go back to guard as soon as the injuries he received in Wednesday's game are sufficiently recovered for him to come out to practice, which will be in a day or two. Beyond those changes the team will remain about the same.

FIGHT FOR POSITIONS. A very interesting fight for positions is going on among the half-backs. Jones, the veteran; Hill, and Carney are all evenly enough matched to make the question as to which one will figure on the substitute list a very open one. Carin breaking up plays when the opposing team has the ball. Hill, although he has not had the advantage of the 'Varsity coaching that stands Jones and Carney in such good stead, is showing up exceptionally wen-for a new man, his end running and de-fensive work being very strong. Virginia expects to put a strong team in the field against Hampton Athletic Club when they meet in Richmond next Saturday. The line-up will be about as

THE HAMPTON LADS.

The Hampton lads are training daily, and are doing good work, too. have a heavy team, and the men claim that they will outclass the lads from the big University. Their captain, Harry Holt, spent some time in Richmond on Friday, arranging for the game, and he is enthusiastic over what he considers the excellent prospects for victory for his club.

An Interesting Game With the Alle ghany Institute Team.

LEXINGTON, VA., October 16 .- (Special.)-An interesting game of foot-ball was played this afternoon on the University Athletic Grounds between the Alleghany Institute and Washington and Lee University teams. The beautiful aftersoon brought out many visitors. The score stood 30 to 0 in favor of Washingon and Lee. Filowing is the line-up:

Alleghany Institute won the toss, and icked off to the 15-yard line. Alford reurned the kick to the 35-yard line. Ingles nade the longest gain-10 yards. On the hird down they lost on a fumble. They got the ball but once more, Washington and Lee making in 61/2 minutes the se ond touch-down. In 16 minutes, wher time was called, the score was 12 to 0 n the second half Washington and Lee kicked off to the 5-yard line, Alleghany advancing only 10 yards. Alleghany kept he ball for two downs, when Washingon and Lee got it. Campbell made 29 ards in two downs. Earelay made 4 ards, Campbell going through the line or a touch-down. There were short, teady gains until Oberlin made 20 yards r a touch-down ich-down. The game ended with Vashington and Lee in possession of the

POST A'S NEW HEADQUARTERS.

Next Meeting Will Be Held There-Interesting Session Last Night.

A regular meeting of Post A, Travel lers' Protective Association of America. was held at its rooms, Nos. 30 and 32 Chamber of Commerce building, last night. Mr. John C. Hagan, first vice president, filled the chair, and Mr. R. B. Walthall, the secretary, recorded. The Committee on New Headquarters reported that the handsome residence a the corner of Third and Main streets recently leased as the home of the post was rapidly being put in first-class or-der and would be ready for occupancy on November 1st. It is probable that from seventy-five to one hundred new members will be elected by Post A by the time the new headquarters are announced a cut in the wages of about two hundred negro employees from $1 per day to 83 1-3 cents, and yesterday morning, when the cut went into effect, a number of the men quit work. Their places will be filled at once, and the work will continue without interruption.

It was explained at the works that the reduction was made for the purpose of equalizing the scale of wages paid laborers at the various plants of the company. For some time past the laborers employed at every other plant have received only $3.1-5 cents a day, while the negroes at the Richmond Chemical-Works got $1 for the same work. This disparity in compensation made the colored workers at the other plants dissatisfied, and it became recessary finally either to raise them on a par with the Richmond plant's force or reduce the wages of the latter. Hence the reduction ordered yesterday.

League of Wheelmen will take place in the Chamber of Commerce building to-morrow night at 8 o'clock.
